

Research & Innovation @ ELFT

Wednesday, 2 November 2022

Programme

#ELFTResearch

Chair – Steve Gillard

2:00 pm	Karin Albani	Welcome & Introduction
2:05 pm	Eleanor Keiller	Dramatherapy interventions which are used to alleviate mental distress and support the well-being of children and adolescents
2:15 pm	Sveta Alladi	A retrospective evaluation of the health needs and early management of unaccompanied asylum-seeking children in a London borough
2:25 pm	Milena Nikolajeva	Developing a longitudinal cohort study to explore emotional resilience in East London primary school children
2:35 pm	Kirsten Barnicot	Video Feedback Intervention for Positive Parenting: Adaptations and Feasibility Testing for Perinatal Mental Health
2:45 pm	Kirsten Prest	Exploring the needs and priorities of those caring for children with neurodisabilities in a diverse UK setting, to inform the co-adaptation of a community-based, caregiver support programme (Ubuntu) successfully tested in low-resource settings (ENCOMPAS)
2:55 pm	Afia Ali	Cognitive and behavioural interventions for reducing aggressive behaviour in people with intellectual disabilities
3:05 pm	Jacqueline Sin	What works for your health?

3:15 pm Break for refreshments, networking and meeting our partners

Chair – Claudia Cooper

3:45 pm	Agnes Chevalier	Neighborhood characteristics and social isolation among patients with psychosis
3:55 pm	Arianna Sinisi	The contribution of Transference Focused Psychotherapy in improving psychiatry trainees' attitude and technical confidence towards patients with personality disorders
4:05 pm	Mimi Suzuki	Piloting a psychological intervention to support people attending the ED with self-harm: Findings from 4 Emergency Departments
4:15 pm	Lilian Skilbeck	Patient-led clinical responsiveness and adaptation research in primary care IAPT psychological service delivery
4:25 pm	Philip McNamee	DIALOG+ for people with chronic depression: mixed methods results from a feasibility trial
4:35 pm	Rachel Morse	Pre-implementation of the APPLE-Tree Intervention
4:45 pm	Charlotte Kenton	Empowering better end of life dementia care
4:55 pm	Frank Röhricht	Closing remarks

In collaboration with:

