EasyRead version

East London NHS Trust runs mental health and community health services.

We wrote this information to help you understand your rights.

This is an EasyRead version of Transfer to hospital without restrictions of a person serving a sentence of imprisonment (Section 47 of the Mental Health Act 1983).

The Mental Health Act is the law that tells people with a mental disorder about their rights and how they can be treated.

Mental disorder means a disorder or disability of the mind such as:

- a mental illness

- a learning disability

- a personality disorder.

About you

Your name:

Name of the person in charge of your treatment:

The name of your hospital and ward:

Date of your hospital direction:

Why you are in hospital

2 doctors told the Secretary of State that you need treatment in hospital under the Mental Health Act.

The Secretary of State for Justice is a member of the government. They are in charge of everything to do with justice, prisons and the courts.

You have been moved from prison to this hospital under Section 47 of the Mental Health Act.

We can keep you here for up to 6 months to give you the treatment you need.

You cannot leave during this time unless the person in charge of your care says you can.

Staff can stop you if you try to leave.

We can bring you back if you do leave.

What happens next

The person in charge of your care can say you should stay in hospital for another 6 months. After this, they can keep you here for a year at a time.

You might have to stay in hospital if your sentence ends but you still need treatment.

Your sentence is the way a court decides to deal with a crime.

If you do not agree with this

You can ask the Hospital Managers to let you leave hospital at any time.

They are a group who decide if people can leave hospital.

They might want to talk to you before they decide.

You can write to the Hospital Managers at:

A large, empty rectangular box with a green border, intended for writing the name of the hospital managers.

You can also ask a Tribunal to say you can leave hospital.

About the Tribunal

The Tribunal is a group who can decide if you should leave hospital. They do not work for the NHS.

You can ask them in the first 6 months after you were sent to hospital. You or your Nearest Relative can ask them once in the next 6 months and once a year while you are kept in hospital.

The Tribunal will read reports about you and your care. One of them will come and talk to you.

Then they have a meeting with you and staff who know you. This is called a hearing.

You can ask someone to come and help you at this meeting.

How to contact the Tribunal

Telephone: 0845 2232022

Write to: The Tribunals Service
PO Box 8793
5th Floor
Leicester
LE1 8BN

Your solicitor can write to the Tribunal and help you at the meeting. You do not have to pay them.

The hospital and the Law Society have a list of solicitors who do this.

Your treatment

The person in charge of your care and other staff will talk about your treatment in hospital. You usually have to agree to what they say.

After 3 months there are special rules about giving you drugs and medicines.

If you say no to the medicine or are too ill to agree to it a doctor who is not from this hospital will see you.

This independent doctor is called a SOAD (Second Opinion Appointed Doctor). They will talk to you and staff at the hospital and decide what treatment is right for you.

Unless it is an emergency, staff can only give you the medicine or drugs this doctor said you should have.

There are different rules for special treatments like ECT (Electro Convulsive Therapy). Staff will talk to you if you need them and give you another leaflet.

Independent mental health advocate

You can have support from an independent mental health advocate if you want it.

The advocate is independent. This means they do not work for the NHS or anyone else involved in your care.

They can:

- tell you about your rights

- help you understand what is happening

- help you tell people what you want.

- help you with the Tribunal.

Ask the staff where there is a telephone for you to talk to the advocacy service in private.

The telephone number for the advocacy service is:

You can ask a member of staff to telephone them for you.

Telling your Nearest Relative

We will give your Nearest Relative a copy of this leaflet.

The staff can give you a leaflet about who your Nearest Relative is and what they can do.

We have been told your Nearest Relative is:

If you do not want them to have a copy of this leaflet, please tell your nurse or a member of staff.

You can ask the county court to change your Nearest Relative. The staff can give you a leaflet about this.

Your letters

We will give you all the letters that are sent to you.

You can write letters to anyone, unless people say they do not want letters from you.

If you write to them, we will stop the letters.

The Code of Practice

The Code of Practice tells staff how to treat people under the Mental Health Act.

They have to think about it when they decide about your care.

You can ask to see a copy of the Code.

How to complain

Please tell the staff if you are not happy with your care and treatment in hospital.

If they cannot sort things out they will tell you how to complain. They can also tell you about people like an independent mental health advocate who can help you.

If you are not happy with how the hospital deals with your complaint you can tell the Care Quality Commission. They do not work for the NHS and check that people use the Mental Health Act properly.

Staff can give you a leaflet about how to contact the Commission.

How to find out more

Please ask the person who gave you this leaflet or other member of staff if:

- you do not understand anything

- you want to ask any questions

- you want a copy of this leaflet for someone else.
