(Kingsway & Bramingham Medical Centre)

Question 1: How many of the practice's patients were referred by the practice for an ADHD assessment during 2023?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 1 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g "referral for ADHD assessment"). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Please note: The Kingsway GP Practice no longer exists as, since 23 January 2024, it has been integrated into Kingsway and Bramingham Medical Centre, therefore we are unable to respond to separate requests for each practice as the data has been transferred to a new integrated clinical system.

Question 2: How many of the practice's patients who were referred by the practice for an ADHD assessment in 2023 were adults?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g "referral for ADHD assessment"). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 2a: How many of these adults were female?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2a of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g "referral for ADHD assessment"). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 2b: How many of these adults were male?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2b of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:
Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g “referral for ADHD assessment”). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 2c: How many of these adults were referred to NHS services?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2c of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:
Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g “referral for ADHD assessment”). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 2d: How many of these adults were referred via the NHS Right to Choose pathway?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2d of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:
Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g “referral for ADHD assessment”). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 2e: How many of these adults referred were referred for a privately funded assessment?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2e of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:
Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g “referral for ADHD assessment”). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 2f: Of the adults referred to NHS services how many were refused an ADHD assessment?

Clarification: To clarify the services referred to are NHS services who carry out ADHD assessments.

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2f of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:
Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g “referral for ADHD assessment”). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 3: How many of the practice’s patients who were referred by the practice for an ADHD assessment in 2023 were children under 18?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 3 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:
Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the information requested in a searchable format (e.g “referral for ADHD assessment”). The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.
